

Wanted: HOST FAMILIES for Lycéens Français!

Students from Cours St. Charles, Orléans, France will be visiting Joel Barlow High School once again this year, from April 8 – April 15, 2016 (the week before April vacation.)

The students range in age from 14-15 years old and are quite proficient in English.

Are you worried that other commitments might interfere with your hosting duties? It's important to be aware of the following:

- The French students will spend two days "shadowing" their JBHS host student. Every aspect of the American high school experience including practices after school fascinates these students. So it will be easy to keep them interested.
- They will also take several field trips to NYC with their group. Typically, they leave early in the morning and return around 8:00 pm.
- They enjoy talking with younger siblings and Moms & Dads, and watching American television!
- They also need time to keep their journals and complete projects.
- They love seeing high school athletes in action and would enjoy attending athletic events!

If you would like to take advantage of this exciting cultural opportunity (and perhaps practice your French too!), please inform your French teacher.
